FIBP September Report

Fenwick Island Beach Patrol has ended its lifeguarding services for the summer of 2019. The season was a huge success. Fenwick Island Beach was fully guarded the entire summer including two weekends into September. Side-by-side services were limited due to the smaller staff and providing adequate beach coverage. Below are the total statistics for 2019:

Rescues: 42
Medical Emergency: 22 (6 requiring ambulance)
Lost/Found Kids: 9
Transport Assist: 380
Beach closing: 7
Police Enforcement: 1

Emily Ruppert will be competing this month in the 2019 International Surf Rescue Challenge (ISRC) 28 September - 2 October. Several fundraising efforts, including a substantial amount from the Beach Committee, allowed Emily to represent Sussex County and Fenwick Island on an international level.

Efforts to continue the success of the FIBP begins as the 2019 summer comes to a close. Fenwick has already received several applications for the 2020 season. The Captain and Lieutenants have worked on a plan of action to improve the current beach patrol procedures and all Beach Patrol members are looking forward to the next summer season.
